1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claims 1, 4-6, 8-9, 12-14, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by McLellan.
- 3. Claims 1-6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Hildebrand.
- 4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 5. Claims 7 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McLellan in view of Hanson.

McLellan discloses all of the claimed subject matter except for having an end with a square geometry. Hanson discloses an end with a hexagonal or square geometry. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the end of McLellan as square as such would have been an obvious equivalent as taught by Hanson.

6. Claims 9-14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hildebrand in view of McLellan.

Application/Control Number: 10/675,821

Art Unit: 3723

Hildebrand discloses all of the claimed subject matter except for having a kit.

McLellan discloses that the tools may be in the form of a kit. See column 3, lines 9-12.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the device of Hildebrand in a kit to allow for the engagement of variously sized workpieces as taught by McLellan.

7. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hildebrand in view of Hanson.

Hildebrand discloses all of the claimed subject matter except for having an end with a square geometry. Hanson discloses an end with a hexagonal or square geometry. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the end of Hildebrand as square as such would have been an obvious equivalent as taught by Hanson.

8. Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hildebrand in view of McLellan as applied above, in further view of Hanson.

Hanson discloses an end with a hexagonal or square geometry. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the end of Hildebrand as square as such would have been an obvious equivalent as taught by Hanson.
